kogee or Oklahoma City golfers as opponents.
Golfing interest, at low ebb during the war, has been revived in recent months and activity on the Tulsa links is greater now than ever before. A majority of club members will participate in the coming tournament.

Complete New Course Soon.

A measure which promises to increase class of play and beautify the course was taken last night when the course was taken hast night when the club directors voted to lay grass greens on the new 18-hole course, which, when completed, will be one of the best in the southwest. It is probable that Chick Evans will assist in the final construction of the course. The new links should be completed by the first of the year, which will permit the start of practice.

Sam Langford, Same Master As of Old, Workout Shows

Ten rounds constituted Sam-Langterd's workout yesterday and at its conclusion the large gathering of ring fans were agreed that the "Tar allby" is in good shape for his Monday night's batthe with Jack Thompson, heavyweight championship of the world. Despite a roll of fat on his stom ach, Langford went through his training with the same speed that has characterized his many ring battles and which was a feature of his go with Thompson here in August. Even in his more youthful days "Thani" carried that roll of fat and those who saw him crawl into the ring that August evening did not believe he could go five rounds. But he went 15 rounds; slashing, smashing rounds they were, full of action every minthey were, full of action every minute and as fast as ever seen in Tulsa before. Langford expressed his determination of beating Thompson and of defending the $1,500 beit offered for the winner of that fight when he first arrived in Tulsa Monday, and his training resterds, showed he is making every effort to get into trim for what he himself admits is one of his hardest battles.
Langford is to work again today at 2.45 o'clock at the breamland theater. All boxing fans are invited to the work outs, for which

Goes to Dallas in Exchange for Lar-ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. Pt.-Tomore-New Infielder and Outfielder Signed

> Several deals of interest to Tobaseball fandom were consummby Spencer Abbott, manager of a local Western league club during t world series games at Chicago. T one which will bring the most gret is the transfer of Johnny Wattillinfielder, one of the most popular members of the club, to the Dallas Texas, league club in exchange in Larimore, infielder. Wuffil, with layne, Manion and Cleveland, was the only player to stick with the club from the first reporting date to the end of the season. He was a robuster fielder and timely batter. Larimore is one of the fastest infielders in the Morris circuit and should fit in nicely with Abbotts pennant plans for next season.
